

Bedford Public Library

Code of Conduct and Responsibilities

Purpose of the Policy

The Bedford Public Library is committed to providing the best possible customer service in a warm, welcoming and safe environment. The Rights of Others Policy is designed to ensure this atmosphere is maintained at all times. The Library's public behavior rules are intended to (1) protect the rights and safety of library users, (2) protect the rights and safety of staff members, and (3) preserve and protect the library's materials, facilities and property.

Library users who violate the Rights of Others Policy may be subject to the suspension of their library privileges, be excluded from the Library and/or face legal action. A copy of the Rules of Conduct will be posted in each library facility.

In keeping with the Library's commitment to customer service and the provision of a safe and inviting atmosphere, the following guidelines are set forth to define those activities that are inappropriate for our users and prohibited. Library staff will enforce these guidelines in a consistent and impartial manner.
