NORTH TEXAS GIVING DAY

Thursday, September 20

6 am - midnight

This will be our 4th year to participate! This fundraiser is only one day from 6:00 am until midnight. Each year we continue to gain momentum & last year we raised $2600 on this day. Join us and help beat last year's donations! Visit www.northtexasgivingday.org for more information about the cause. We will share a direct link to the Library's donation page closer to Sept. 20.

MEDIEVAL FAIRE & MARKET

Saturday, September 22

10 am - 2 pm

Troy Depue will gather vendors & performers from around the medieval world for an event like no other at the Library! Acts such as the Armored Combat League, the Black Wolf Vikings, & Shipboard Combat will be on hand to demonstrate fighting styles & techniques from the medieval age. Chess games will be available to play. The Dublin Double & Vesperam will serenade guests with lively medieval music. Vendors will offer goodies such as authentic medieval coins, leather goods, & clothing. An apothecary & a film maker will also be featured. Period costumes are encouraged!

POETRY CIRCLE: TO THIS I SAY...

1st & 3rd Tuesdays 5 - 6 pm

How will you finish this statement? And, for you, to what is this statement in response? Politics? Injustice? Yesterday's bad hair day? As poets we have a duty to not just exist in the world around us but to respond to it as well. Join us at the To This I Say... poetry circle. Discover your answers to these questions & respond as only a poet knows how. We'll practice, read, & perform our work, so come ready to share.

EMBRACING YOUR BEAUTY at 50+
